A Walk With Henry Julie Minten

“As long as you have people who love you, you’re never lost.” Sarah Sullivan has experienced a lifetime’s worth of tragedy. Some would even say, more than most. Ever since a mysterious hit and run driver took the life of her young husband, Danny, on a lonely stretch of road, Sarah has been living a nightmare. With no leads in the case and no answers as to why, Sarah struggles with soul-numbing loss. Is life really worth living without him? Motivated by the picturesque settings of Oak Bend and its charming cast of characters Sarah calls family and friends, she makes the courageous decision to carry on with her life. Swearing off dating forever, Sarah finds solace in running her grandmother’s book shop, Cover to Cover. But will she ever be happy again? Thanks to her three meddling girlfriends and one colorful grandmother, Sarah comes face to face with Oak Bend’s newest Police Chief, Lucas O’Neal. He’s friendly, charming, and the sort of handsome that has every single lady in town vying for his attention. Although, Sarah is content to avoid him like the plague, Lucas is determined to get to know Oak Bend’s sweetheart. Will he be able to solve the mystery that has tormented Sarah and engulfed an entire community? And will Sarah be brave enough to let her heart find love again?
