Mafia Princess Tamicka Higgins

Abrianna had it all. She was born into one of the richest families in her City, but that wasn't it. The way they had gotten their fortune was through drugs, murder for hire and an extensive list of other crimes that propelled them to one of the most feared families in her town. She was responsible for the money laundering of all the illegal activity that the family did but when her father passed away, the pioneer of the crime family, her brother stepped into place. Soon after his death, she met Lorenzo, a member of a rival family crime family. It was love at first sight even though she didn't realize he was a Crip until after the fact and by then, it was too late. She was willing to sacrifice her standing in her family to be with him. When one of her brothers gets killed, the family finds out about her love affair with a member of the rival crime family and immediately blames her because of her love connection. After being accused by her blood, she turns to turn away with her new love only to find out that the door she goes through with him opens up a whole new chapter of her life where friends become enemies and enemies become family. Join Abrianna in this epic story of Crime, Forbidden Love and Revenge in this standalone banger, Mafia Princess.
