But Laura has a secret, one she won't even share with her good friend and nurse Julia. To make matters worse two recent ex-boyfriends, who had previously rejected her are now fighting for another chance. Laura's emotions are on high and has brought on dreams that leave her scared and unrested. She'll have to turn to the one person she's resisted for help. She's fighting to keep her job despite lack of sleep and deal with inner conflicts about disregarded feelings for her ex's, while she struggling to face the root cause of her nightmares. When Laura wakes to find she's someone else, living in Biblical Egypt during the time of Moses, more questions than answers leave her twisted in knots she'll have to unravel.
