Taking the coloring craze by storm, teen illustrator Malika Anjali, turns the tables on the phenomenon by offering up the first coloring book for adults by a kid. Malika presents the unique beauty of hand-drawn imperfections as she details what the world looks like through the eyes of a 13 year-old girl. Taking inspirations from the jungle growing in her backyard with its lovely leafy trees and blossoming flowers as well as friends from the animal world, Malika's pages present a unique spin on art that you won't necessarily find in secret gardens or enchanted forests. Her work reminds us all of our own artistic aspirations and that, more often than not, happiness can be found right in your own backyard.
