Love, Not Otherwise Classified: Tested for Life Grace Marie Lohng

A woman born in Poverty overcame constant adversity to become a Missionary and traverse the Globe. Having suffered many things for her Faith, and grappling with the Concept of a God whose Love allows Suffering, she persevered in helping the downtrodden, while living her own life in day to day subsistence. It is amazing to see the way God used one human being to impact the lives of so many others, while simply living her life in a manner that tried to put the Gospel into action rather than just empty words. She struggled with Disabilities of her own, while attempting to take it all in stride and utilizing Humor to soften, the sometimes harsh, realities of our modern world. If you need to be reminded of what it means to "pick up your Cross daily and follow Me," then this is the book for you.
