Red Dot Design Yearbook 2016/2017: Living, Doing, Working & Enjoying

The yearbook volumes “Living”, “Doing”, "Working" and "Enjoying" are a must for anyone interested in remaining up-to-date on the current trends in international product design: architects, designers, product and purchasing managers, design institutes, technology freaks, design-scene insiders, and individuals who are fascinated by culturally relevant product development. “Living” comprises the categories from the area of living and household goods like furniture, household items, cooking utensils, lamps.

“Doing” is devoted to the product areas relating to technical products and to “doing” in the broadest sense, such as outdoor, leisure, sports, fashion, lifestyle as well as watches, jewellery, garden furniture and tools.

“Working” presents products from the field of work and technology, like office furniture and accessories, medical equipment, industry and crafts, as well as computers and telephones and “Enjoying” features products where aspects such as enjoyment and the experience play a special role. The categories are bathrooms and spas, vehicles, consumer electronics and cameras, as well as communication. Additionally, the design team of the year, as well as designer and jury portraits will be presented in all four volumes.
