The Chronicles of Navigating Disclosure Mykell Hatcher-McLarin

One step forward, two steps back and begin again is the travel dance of a man who does not want his steps to be heard in silence but erupt in sounds of stomps arriving when he believes no one is listening but then everyone turns to him when he walks in room, takes steps on floor and he commences to tell his story in movement. The Chronicles of Navigating Disclosure is a collection of poems of my movement throughout my journey of self-discovery. As a Black Man of Transgender Experience, I find this process of navigation crucial and there is not always space to disclose such stories. But through these poems, I have made space for me. From 11th grade when I first realized I am transgender to the moments now where I reflect on my futures yet lived, I share with you a coming and continuum of being. In reading my short collection may you be inspired to make space to share your stories in however you may move throughout them.
