"Expert crafting and a gift for sustained suspense" TODAY "Thoroughly researched and exciting to match" BOOKLIST As the war in England's American colonies entered its third bloody year, the last hope for a negotiated settlement vanished. For the king's fleet admirals, it was a time to initiate assaults that would quash the small American navy once and for all. For the beleaguered colonies, it was a time to launch warships and carry the battle to the shores of England. For ex-British naval officer Patrick Dalton, now a fugitive from false charges of treason, it was a time for choosing sides. The fox must turn and fight - but for which flag?
